Intergenerational Mission Trip to Puerto Rico—Meet the Delegates Going and Enjoy a Delicious Puerto Rican Dinner

WNL—February 20th. Come join the delegation of youth & adults traveling on June 23-29th to PR. We are going to enjoy a typical Puerto Rican dinner and want to invite you to learn to dance Salsa! Why? Because, as the Psalmist said “be jubilant with joy!” Come and be part of the joy of mission work: building relationships with these 17 who go forth with dancing hearts to bring God's Light to a place that for over a year saw very little light..

Jazz Vespers Sunday, March 24, 5:00 PM in the Sanctuary

William “MoBetta” Ledbetter is a native of Hampton, Va and grew up playing Blues and Gospel. He plays a multitude of instruments, yet he focuses on guitar and the upright bass. Utilizing all of the principles of the Blues, William has established a solid foundation for studying and performing Jazz. He first picked up the upright bass while enrolled in the North Carolina A&T State University Jazz Ensemble under the direction of Mondre Moffett. Realizing he could make a promising future playing the bass, he enrolled in the famous UNCG Miles Davis School of Music Jazz program. He is currently a graduating senior and a student of Steve Haines. William performs all across the Triad region and can be found playing often at the O'Henry hotel, and the Camel City Jazz Orchestra.
